Registration Policies

Registration will not be accepted without full payment online or by check, credit card or official purchase order. All checks must be in US dollars and made payable to TASH.

at this rate thanks to the generous contributions of members and donors, and is intended for people with restricted incomes. Students are required to submit their school transcripts to receive this rate.

Attendee Selection

Professional, Associate, Organizational: This ticket is for people working in the disability field in a professional capacity and those in their early careers — such as tenured professors, service providers or agency administrators and post-graduates, pre-tenure professors, K-12 educators or junior agency personnel, and organizational members.

Cancellations/Substitutions: All cancellations must be requested in writing (e-mails are acceptable) on or before Thursday, November 8, 2018, to receive a refund less 15% service charge. No refunds will be granted after Thursday, November 8, 2018. A 15% service charge will be applied for processing refunds. All requests for refunds should state the registrant's name and the amount of payment. We regret that we cannot offer refunds for "no shows" at the conference. Substitutes are welcome at any time. Substituted registrants that fit into a different registration category will be responsible for payment of the difference in conference registration fees. Registrations may not be shared for any reason. Thank you for your understanding.

Student, Self-Advocate/Family/Supporter: This ticket is for students, self-advocates, family members and other supporters who are not working in the field as professionals. This registration can be offered
