WHY ATTEND THE 2015 TASH CONFERENCE

Integrated Employment

This year's theme, "Celebrating 40 Years of Progressive Leadership," acknowledges TASH's 40 years of generating change within the disability community and anticipates a brighter, more inclusive future for people with disabilities in all aspects of life.

Employment is an essential component of life in the community, and leads to greater independence and opportunity for people with disabilities. The TASH Conference provides attendees with resources such as: training and models for Discovery and Customized Employment, and tips for negotiating value-added roles with employers.

Hot Topics Include:

- Employment First strategies and successes
- Implementing the Workforce Opportunities and Investment Act
- Implications of the HCBS regulations and settings requirements on employment
- Ingenious self-employment strategies
- Employment success stories told by self-advocates
- Negotiating a great job match
- Transforming agencies from segregated to integrated employment
- Post-secondary education as a path to employment
- Navigating high school to employment
- And much more!
