ABOUT THE TASH CONFERENCE

Each year, the TASH Conference brings together a diverse community of stakeholders who gain information, learn about resources, and connect with others across the country to strengthen the disability field. This year's conference theme, "Still We Rise for Equity, Opportunity, and Inclusion," shows the resilience of individuals with disabilities and their families across the lifespan. Conference attendees will celebrate their passion for disability rights, civil rights, and human rights while exploring inclusive communities, schools, and workplaces that support people with disabilities, including those with complex support needs.

TASH ON INCLUSIVE EDUCATION

As a national leader calling for meaningful and full inclusion for all students, TASH provides both inspiration and expert instruction for educators, parents, and others impacting results in the classroom.

TASH and its members have been pioneers in inclusive education strategies for more than 40 years, leading to the dissemination of research and best practices that directly improve outcomes for individuals with disabilities.

TASH is a vocal advocate for the rights and opportunities of people with disabilities to gain meaningful access to education. TASH also knows those opportunities depend upon educators and professionals who are equipped to provide supports and services for all children.

True inclusion can be achieved within general education classrooms.
